

CARING FOR THE CHURCH

Does the church look cared for? Why do you think it is, or is not?

What things in a church would need special care?

Can you find any clues to tell you if children or old people use the church? Is it an easy place for them to feel comfortable in?

What things would you like to see altered in the church and why?