Please indicate below the number of people in your group opting for each workshop

Workshop A: The Shape of Collective Worship. The Schools Advisers for the Dioceses of Norwich, Ely and St Edmundsbury & Ipswich on creating "sacred space" and the structure of worship as "Gathering, Engaging, Responding, Sending". Featuring the new resource "Flippin'Praise" and practical examples of how to improve your school's worship experience. (Copies of Flippin' Praise will be available for purchase on the day at £10)

Number for Workshop A

Workshop B: Songs for Life Esther Jones is a singer, conductor and animateur with a passion for music education. She has taught music at primary and secondary levels but is now part of the education team at the Royal School of Church Music, as well as teaching part-time at the Royal Academy of Music. The workshop will give practical advice on how to inspire singing in collective worship, and will explore music in a wide range of styles, with guidance on how to introduce new songs.
