These continue this evening at 17.00 in Church. We are using the Pilgrim Lent Course.

Confession

Lent is the traditional time for Christians to make confession and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. If you would like to make your confession please speak to Fr Mark and if you would like to know more about what this is you can speak to either Fr Mark or Fr Alex.

Stations of the Cross

Again we are holding Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 19:30 throughout Lent with our brothers and sisters at the Church of the Sacred Heart. The dates and venues are as follows: 22 March and 5 April at Sacred Heart; 29 March and 12 April at All Saints.

Easter Lilies

As is our custom at All Saints we will decorate the church with lilies at Easter. Donations towards their cost are invited, especially from those who may wish to remember a departed loved one in this way. There is a yellow collecting tub by the door for the money and a list for the names of those to be remembered, which will be printed up and left on display throughout the season. If you wish to pay by card then please use the terminal by the refreshments where you will find an Easter Lilies Donation Button

The Angelus

Traditionally this is recited at 09.00, 12.00 and 18.00. Consequently we will ring the bell and recite this at 12.00, Please pause in your conversations when the bell is rung. A card with the words on is included in this booklet, for your convenience, please take the card with you if you wish to use it at home. or if not please leave it by the door.

And humbly follow after me.

Take up thy cross; let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame,
Nor let your foolish pride rebel;
The Lord for thee the Cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.

Take up thy cross then in his strength,
And calmly every danger brave;
'Twill guide thee to a better home,
And lead to victory o'er the grave.

Take up thy cross, and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down;
For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

To thee, great Lord, the One in Three,
All praise for evermore ascend;
O grant us in our home to see
The heavenly life that knows no end. Amen.

Words: Charles Everest (1814—1877)

Tune Breslau: melody from As Hymnodus Sacer (Leipzig 1625), arranged by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy (1809—1847)

¶ *Remain standing for the Invocation and Greeting

† In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you and also with you.

The Dismissal

¶ Please sit or kneel for the Introit (the Lent Prose)

Repeat the Response after the Cantor:

Hear us, O Lord, have mer-cy u - pon us: for we have sinned a - gainst you.

Cantor: O Chief cornerstone, Right Hand of the Father,
Way of Salvation, Gate of Life Celestial:
Cleanse our sinful souls from all defilement.

All: Hear us, O Lord (as above, once only)

¶ Remain seated or kneeling for the Prayers of Penitence

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:
The first commandment is this:
'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.'

The second is this: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.'
There is no other commandment greater than these.
On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.
Amen. Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God, long-suffering and of great goodness:
I confess to you, I confess with my whole heart
my neglect and forgetfulness of your commandments, my wrong doing, thinking, and speaking;
the hurts I have done to others,
and the good I have left undone.
O God, forgive me, for I have sinned against you;
and raise me to newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord
In the name of Christ. Amen.

¶ Remain standing for the Final Hymn

Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The heavens are not too high,
His praise may thither fly;
The earth is not too low,
His praises there may grow.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!

Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!
The church with psalms must shout,
No door can keep them out;
But, above all, the heart
Must bear the longest part.
Let all the world in every corner sing,
My God and King!

Words: Geroge Herbert (1593—1633), from The Temple (1633)
Tune Luckington: Basil Harwood (1859—1949)

In accordance with an ancient tradition, there are no Organ Voluntaries during Lent, except on the Fourth Sunday.

NOTICES

Electoral Roll Renewal

The Electoral Roll is now being renewed preceding our Annual Parochial Church Meeting. Please fill out an application from if you washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.'

Pilgrim Reflection

In an extraordinary moment, John tells us that Jesus knows that the Father has given all things into his hands. This is God the Son dwelling among us. How does God the Son show us what God is like?

He ties a towel around himself, pours water into a basin and begins to wipe the disciples' feet. Extraordinary service in a remarkable moment—Jesus' s last meal with his disciples before he is crucified.

This is what God's love means: Jesus serves and ministers to his disciples in the offer of cleansing and forgiveness, in daily friendship and care, in modelling the good and life giving way.

Pilgrim Prayer

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness and cleanse me from my sins. Ps. 51

Pilgrim Act

Response and Chant: MHE

The Lord is my light and my help;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
before whom shall I shrink? (Response)

O Lord, hear my voice when I call,
have mercy and answer.

Of you my heart has spoken:
'Seek his face.' (Response)

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face.

Dismiss not your servant in anger;
you have been my help. (Response)

I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.

Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord! (Response)

¶ Please stand for the Prayer after Communion

The Priest introduces a period of silent prayer with the words

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you see that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves: keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Notices

Pilgrim Gospel

He poured water into a basin and begun to wash the disciples feet. John 13: 1-15

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, 'Lord, are you going to wash my feet?' Jesus answered, 'You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand.' Peter said to him, 'You will never wash my feet.' Jesus answered, 'Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.' Simon Peter said to him, 'Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!' Jesus said to him, 'One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you.' For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, 'Not all of you are clean.'

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, 'Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have they were not disappointed in what they craved.

Distribution of the Sacrament

Anyone who has been baptised in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and wishes to receive the love of the Lord Jesus in their life, is welcome to receive communion at this service. Alternatively you may wish to come for a blessing: please keep your hands down and your head bowed to indicate that this is your preference.

¶ Please join in singing the Communion Hymn

Jesu, grant me this, I pray,
Ever in thy heart to stay;
Let me evermore abide
Hidden in thy wounded side.

If the evil one prepare,
Or the world, a tempting snare,
I am safe when I abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

If the flesh, more dangerous still,
Tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
Naught I fear when I abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

Death will come one day to me;
Jesu, cast me not from thee:
Dying let me still abide
In thy heart and wounded side.

Words Dignare me, O Jesu, rogo te: Anon. (17th century), translated by Henry Williams Baker (1821—1877)

This is the word of the Lord.      Thanks be to God.

¶ Please stand for the Gospel Acclamation and turn towards the Gospel reader.
Please repeat the Response after the Cantor:

Cantor: Blessed is the one who comes
In the name of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

¶ Remain standing for the Gospel Reading (Luke 13: 31—35)

The Lord be with you      and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
Glory to you, O Lord.

At the end of the Gospel the reader says:

This is the Gospel of the Lord.      Praise to you, O Christ.

¶ Please sit for the Sermon

The Vicar

¶ Please stand for the Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

Please bow for the next three lines:

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

¶ Please sit or kneel for the Prayers of Intercession

The priest introduces the prayers.

To the bidding Lord, meet us in the silence.

Please respond by saying Give us strength and hear our prayer.

at the end of the prayers the priest introduces a period for silent reflection and says a concluding prayer, to which the people respond:
Amen.

¶ The Liturgy of the Sacrament

¶ Please stand for the Peace

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us access to his grace.

Amen.

¶ Remain standing for the Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

¶ Remain standing for the Invitation to Communion

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

¶ Please sit or kneel for the Lamb of God

While the Altar Party receives the Sacrament, the choir leads the singing of the 'Agnus Dei' (Lamb of God). Please join in singing:

Plainsong (12th Century)

Invitatory Sentence

They ate and had their fill, and what they craved the Lord gave them;

Therefore, Lord and heavenly Father, in remembrance of the precious death and passion, the mighty resurrection and glorious ascension of your dear Son Jesus Christ, we offer you through him this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Grant that by his merits and death, and through faith in his blood, we and all your Church may receive forgiveness of our sins and all other benefits of his passion. Although we are unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer you any sacrifice, yet we pray that you will accept this the duty and service that we owe.

Do not weigh our merits, but pardon our offences, and fill us all who share in this holy communion with your grace and heavenly blessing;

through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever.

Amen.

*¶ Remain standing for the Lord's Prayer

Believing the promises of God, let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

*¶ Remain standing for the Offertory Hymns

*A collection is taken for the mission and upkeep of the Church.
The table is prepared and bread and wine are placed upon it.*

There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice
Which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven:
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.

There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour;
There is healing in his blood.
There is grace enough for thousands
Of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations
In that upper home of bliss.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of our mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

But we make his love too narrow

By false limits of our own;
 And we magnify his strictness
 With a zeal he will not own.
 If our love were but more simple,
 We should take him at his word;
 And our lives would be all gladness,
 In the joy of Christ our Lord.

Words: Frederick William Faber (1814 – 1863)
 Tune Corvedale: Maurice Bevan (1921 – 2006)

¶ Remain standing for the Prayer over the Gifts

God of mercy and compassion,
 your Word calls us home to faith and love.
 Accept all we offer you this day; in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.
Amen.

¶ Remain standing throughout the Eucharistic Prayer (C)

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy, at all times and in all places to give you thanks and praise, holy Father, heavenly King, almighty and eternal God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

And now we give you thanks because you give us the spirit of discipline, that we may triumph over evil and grow in grace, as we prepare to celebrate the paschal mystery with mind and heart renewed.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

Plainsong (13th Century)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord God of power and might.
 Hea-ven and earth are full of your glo-ry, Ho-san-na in the high-est.
 Bles-sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord:
 Ho - san - na in the high - est.

All glory be to you, our heavenly Father who, in your tender mercy, gave your only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there by his one oblation of himself once offered a full, perfect and sufficient sacrifice, oblation and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world;
 he instituted, and in his holy gospel commanded us to continue,
 a perpetual memory of his precious death until he comes again.

Hear us, merciful Father, we humbly pray, and grant that, by the power of your Holy Spirit, we receiving these gifts of your creation, this bread and this wine, according to your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ's holy institution, in remembrance of his death and passion, may be partakers of his most blessed body and blood;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took bread and gave you thanks;
 he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take, eat;
 this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave you thanks;
 he gave it to them, saying:
 Drink this, all of you;
 this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Christ is the bread of life:
